

Detective Supervisor: Investigations - New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking a qualified candidate for a Detective Supervisor position in the above noted location. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated, and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Detective Supervisors, under the direct supervision of Deputy Chief for the Major Investigations Unit, the incumbent will be responsible for the supervision of investigatory personnel who conduct a variety of criminal and civil investigations. These are often highly complex and sensitive criminal matters, and the incumbent will provide the first level of review on administrative matters such as time and attendance, expense accounts, state vehicle usage, and overtime approval for unit members, as well as annually evaluating the performance of the detectives assigned to the unit. The supervisor will also oversee and direct criminal and civil investigations and will confer with the unit deputy chief on case matters as well as personnel issues. The supervisor will review cases and conduct monthly case reviews.

The qualifications for this specific position include at least five years of law enforcement investigative experience, five of which were in a supervisory capacity; Bachelor's degree or higher; ability to effectively manage multiple investigations in a variety of disciplines; experience in overseeing the investigation of various types of crimes including, but not limited to, complex fraud, identity theft and money laundering; experience investigating confidential and sensitive matters; experience writing and/or reviewing reports; experience in supervising field operations such as search warrants and arrests; coordination with other law enforcement agencies; having established law enforcement contacts on the local, state and federal levels within the region.

Please respond to Reference No. INV_INVS_NYC_9426_042724, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is April 27, 2024.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement experience and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General. The Hire Rate for this position is $95,417. Appointments in New York City receive an additional $3,400 location pay.

Applications are being received online. To apply, please click on this link: INV_INVS_NYC_9426_042724; applicants will be taken to the online application page for this position. Applicants must be prepared to submit a complete application packet consisting of a cover letter (include Reference No. INV_INVS_NYC_9426_042724) and resume. Please note: Failure to submit a complete application will delay the consideration of your application. You may address your cover letter to Investigator Jobs.

For questions about a Detective Supervisor position with the OAG, the application process or assistance with submitting your application, please email Investigator.jobs@ag.ny.gov or call 518-776-2500.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.