PENNIES FOR CHARITY - 2009

In these difficult economic times, transparency in charitable giving is more critical than ever. New Yorkers donating to charity have a right to know how their charitable donations are being used. They expect that their hard-earned dollars will actually make a difference.

Pennies for Charity, New York State Attorney General Andrew M. Cuomo's annual report of telemarketing campaigns in New York, shows donors how much of their contributions made in response to telemarketers' solicitations actually supports charitable programs. It is intended as a tool to assist donors as they decide which charities to support. It can also be used by charitable organizations to evaluate a professional fundraisers' performance.

This year's report is based on financial reports filed by professional fundraisers for telemarketing campaigns conducted during 2008.

FINDINGS

A total of $204.8 million was raised on behalf of 444 charities in 2008 by the 584 telemarketing campaigns covered in this report. This amount includes funds raised in New York and other states during telemarketing campaigns conducted by telemarketers registered to solicit charitable contributions in New York.

Key findings include:

- In over 80 percent, or 475 of the 584 campaigns, the charities kept less than 50 percent of the funds raised.
- In nearly half, or 285 of the 584 campaigns, the charities received less than 30 percent of the funds raised.
- In 42 of the 584 campaigns reflected in the report, charities actually lost money.
- In only 42 of the 584 campaigns did the charity retain at least 65 percent of the money raised, the amount deemed acceptable under the Better Business Bureau's standards for charitable organizations.

- In total, 60.5 percent, or $123.9 million, of the funds raised by telemarketers in 2008 was paid to the fundraisers for fees and/or used to cover the costs of conducting the campaigns. By comparison, charities retained 39.5 percent, or $80.9 million, of the total funds raised in the campaigns.

The following table shows the distribution of the funds raised in the 584 telemarketing campaigns of 2008, arranged according to percentage of funds retained by the charity.

* In one campaign, the net amount to charity exceeded 100% of the gross amount raised in the campaign. In that campaign, the contract guaranteed to the charity a minimum payment that ultimately exceeded the amount collected.

** In 42 telemarketing campaigns, the campaign apparently resulted in a loss to the charity. This can occur when the fundraising contract does not guarantee the charity a specific dollar amount or specific percentage of the gross receipts or when the contract does not hold the charity harmless for expenses/fees that exceed the gross amount contributed.

HOW THIS REPORT WAS PREPARED

The data in this report was obtained from financial reports filed with the Attorney General's Charities Bureau by professional fundraisers that conducted telemarketing campaigns on behalf of charitable organizations during 2008.<sup>1</sup> The filings are either closing reports submitted after completion of a campaign or interim reports submitted annually for campaigns conducted for a period longer than one year.<sup>2</sup> Each filed report is signed by both the professional fundraiser and the contracting charitable organization. All of the charities listed in the report conducted telemarketing fundraising campaigns in New York State.<sup>3</sup> The figures reported reflect the total amount of money solicited and are not limited to New Yorkers' contributions.

The report consists of seven tables. Table 1 lists the charitable organizations in alphabetical order, the professional fundraisers that conducted each organization's telemarketing campaign, the geographical location of each soliciting charity, whether the filing is an interim or closing report, the total amount raised in each campaign, the amount each charity retained, the amount of uncollected pledges and the percentage of the total raised that each charity retained.

Tables 2 through 4 contain the same information as Table 1, but are organized differently. Table 2 lists the professional fundraisers first, in alphabetical order. Table 3 arranges the information in descending order by the percentage of the total amount raised that was retained by the charitable organizations. Table 4 arranges the information according to geographical

<sup>1</sup> Registration of professional fundraisers is required by Article 7-A of New York State's Executive Law. Registration should not be construed as approval and/or endorsement by the Attorney General of any professional fundraiser or the accuracy and/or completeness of the information contained in any financial report filed with the Charities Bureau.

<sup>2</sup> Readers should be aware that the final figures and ratios may change when a campaign has been completed and all income and expenses are reported.

<sup>3</sup> Information for an additional 21 telemarketing campaigns conducted during 2008 had not been submitted prior to the preparation date of this report.

location of the charitable organizations.<sup>4</sup>

Table 5 presents, in descending order, the amount raised by each charity from all of its 2008 fundraising campaigns, expressed as a percentage of the total amount raised.

Table 6 aggregates the total amount that each professional fundraiser raised in its campaigns in 2008 and the total amount that was retained by its client charities. The table presents the percentage amount retained by the charity in descending order, starting with the fundraiser whose client charities retained the largest percentage of funds.

Table 7 contains contact information for the professional fundraisers, as provided to the Charities Bureau.

Uncollected pledges to a charity are not reported in the total amount raised, but are reported in a separate column in each table.<sup>5</sup> Non-monetary contributions are not covered in this report.

In reading this report, keep in mind that amounts raised in a telemarketing campaign may represent only a small part of a charity's fundraising activity and, therefore, may not provide a complete picture of a charity's overall fundraising. Donors are encouraged to review the annual financial report of a charity when considering whether to make a contribution and should not rely solely on this report. Donors should also keep in mind that other factors may affect a charitable organization's fundraising costs, including that the charity may use telemarketing to achieve goals other than fundraising, such as marketing, advocacy or volunteer recruitment, and newer charities may incur higher costs in order to develop a donor base.

<sup>4</sup> The areas included in each of the eight geographical areas are described below the graph labeled Locations Of Charities Conducting 2008 Telemarketing Campaigns.

<sup>5</sup> An uncollected pledge is a promised contribution that the charity has not received by the date of filing of a professional fundraiser's financial report with the Charities Bureau. The charity may never receive uncollected pledges. In some telemarketing campaigns, a donor may agree to pay a specified dollar amount over a period of months or even years. Reports of such campaigns will often show a large amount in the "Uncollected Pledges" column and small amounts in the "Net To Charity" and "% To Charity" columns. In each table, a $0.00 in the Uncollected Pledges column indicates that there were no uncollected pledges reported on the respective financial report or that there were no uncollected outstanding pledges by the date on which the fundraiser filed the report.

TIPS BEFORE GIVING

If you get a call from a telemarketer, do not feel pressured to give over the phone. You can just say no! If you choose not to hang up, you should ask the caller:

- What programs are conducted by the charity?
- How much of your donation will be used for charitable programs?
- How much does the telemarketer guarantee to the charity?

Also, remember:

- Only give to charities with which you are familiar.
- Do not give a credit card number to an unknown caller.
- Ask for information in writing.
- You can screen calls to avoid answering calls from telemarketers.

Before giving to any charitable organization, you should also review the organization's annual reports, and any additional information provided by the organization. Annual reports for charities registered with the New York State Attorney General may be obtained from the organization or the Charities Bureau.<sup>6</sup> Filings received by the Charities Bureau since November 15, 2006 are posted on Attorney General Cuomo's Internet site at http://bartlett.oag.state.ny.us/Char\_Forms/search\_charities.jsp.

You should also review Attorney General Cuomo's pamphlet, Tips on Charitable Giving - What You Should Know, which is also available on the Attorney General's Internet site at <http://www.oag.state.ny.us/bureaus/charities/pdfs/TIPS%20-%20Charitable%20Giving.pdf>.

.A REMINDER FOR CHARITIES

A charitable organization's most valuable asset is its name. An organization should not jeopardize its reputation by permitting a telemarketer to speak on its behalf without first carefully reviewing how a telemarketing campaign will be conducted and then monitoring the progress of the campaign.

In addition, before engaging a telemarketer, a charitable organization should:

- Review this report and previous Pennies for Charities reports;
- Obtain bids from several telemarketers and select one that will maximize the funds available for charitable purposes;
- Carefully review fundraising scripts and marketing materials to be used in the campaign; and
- Explore other means of raising funds that may be more lucrative.

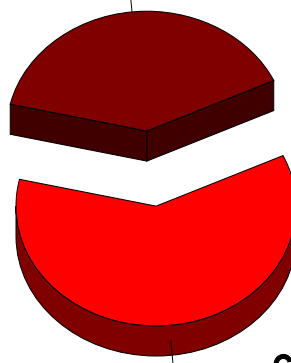

Charitable organizations should also read Attorney General Cuomo's pamphlet, Tips For Charities Raising Funds in New York State - Questions to Ask Before and After Signing A Contract With A Fund Raising Professional, which is posted on the internet at http://www.oag.state.ny.us/bureaus/charities/pdfs/charities\_raising\_funds.pdf.
