Application Deadline is April 14, 2023***
2023 Summer Paid Placement for Undergraduate Students

The New York State Office of the Attorney General's (OAG) Administrative Services Bureau (ASB) has a paid summer placement available for undergraduate students who are interested in learning more about the day-to-day operations of this leading public sector law firm. ASB manages the core business functions of the OAG's 20+ offices located around New York State. ASB is responsible for asset management, facilities management, publication production, mail services, records management, conference services and more. The selected student will be introduced to various aspects of the Bureau's portfolio and have an opportunity to shadow the Bureau's managers.

Through this placement, students will have the opportunity to develop their critical thinking, analytical abilities and troubleshooting skills. The position provides students a high degree of responsibility and requires them to exercise excellent organization skills and attention to detail. Applicants must be proactive, adaptable and customer and team focused. No specific experience is required.

Summer Program Details

- Students who are hired for this placement must be able to report to their designated workstation on their scheduled workdays.
- To be eligible for a paid summer placement, applicants must be able to demonstrate they are full-time students in good academic standing as defined by their schools. Applications from students who will be starting college/university during the fall 2023 semester will not be considered.
- Undergraduate students hired for the program will work 3 days per week (22.5 hours/week) for the 8 weeks of the program. The program will run from June 5 – July 28, 2023. Students hired for the program must be available to work during these dates and for the entire 8 weeks of the program.
- Applications will be received online until April 14, 2023, and paid placement offers will be made on a rolling basis.*
- Undergraduate students will be hired as student assistants and paid the hourly rate of $16.24.
- Applicants must be available to meet by video conference for interviews.
- U.S. citizenship and New York State residency are not required, but applicants must be eligible to be employed in the U.S.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
