Reference No. DRA_AAG_3572

Application Deadline is June 2, 2023

Position availability in the following locations: Albany, Binghamton, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Harlem, Plattsburgh, Rochester, Suffolk County, Syracuse, Watertown and Westchester County

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's (OAG) Division of Regional Affairs is seeking attorneys to handle investigations, enforcement actions and affirmative litigation in their assigned region and collaborate on statewide initiatives. The selected attorneys will be hired as Assistant Attorneys General and will be involved in all stages of investigation and litigation, including strategic planning, issuing subpoenas, conducting depositions, drafting commencement documents, negotiating settlements and conducting trials.

The OAG's Regional Offices represent the State, its agencies and officers in state and federal courts in claims and litigation relating to civil rights, public employment, social services, education, elections, law enforcement, public health, state finance, insurance, taxation and other litigated matters arising out of state operations and legislation. The Regional Offices also handle affirmative social and economic justice investigations, enforcement actions and litigation in diverse areas including consumer protection, civil rights, workers' rights, housing protection, charities and enforcement of the state's Cannabis Law in collaboration with the State's Office of Cannabis Management.

Qualifications for the Assistant Attorney General positions are as follows:

- At least two (2) years of post-graduate legal experience is preferred, however, the Regional Offices will consider well-qualified applicants who have fewer years of experience;
- Prior litigation and trial experience is a plus;
- Strong writing, legal analysis, organizational, interpersonal communication and problem-solving skills;
- Motivated and collaborative with the ability to work independently and interact with a diverse group of colleagues, members of the public and government regulators;
- Comfort with and proficiency using technology to complete legal work, including knowledge of and experience with various computer software programs and case management and electronic discovery platforms; and
- A demonstrated commitment to public service.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and must be admitted to practice law in New York State. Additionally, the Public Officers Law requires that OAG attorneys be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

As an employee of the OAG, you will join a team of dedicated individuals who work to serve the people of our State through a wide variety of occupations.
