Doing the list now. As far as DJT's. One unit just sold for over 5000 a foot. However, another just came on the market at over 11K /sq ft.

Which is not necessarily indicative of the market.

Based on the activity in the luxury market and given how unique the apartment is , as well a tied to celebrity, I don't see how one would list below 8K per sq ft at this point. which brings us to @240,000M.. 200,000M is a safe estimate

Op price in his sheet was incorrect for 31/32.
Do you need that column ? What about sq ft? Need that ?
