

Division of Regional Affairs
Binghamton Regional Office
Assistant Attorney General
Reference No. BING_AAG_3628

Application Deadline December 15, 2023

The Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an attorney to litigate cases brought in federal court, including Section 1983 cases, discrimination cases, employment cases and other federal cases brought against the State of New York, its agencies, and its employees. The selected attorney will be seated in the Binghamton Regional Office and expected to handle matters venued throughout Central New York.

These cases present a myriad of questions on constitutional law, including in the areas of excessive use of force and deliberate indifference to medical care under the Eighth Amendment; Free Exercise of religion under the First Amendment; and procedural due process and Equal Protection under the Fourteenth Amendment. The attorney will handle all phases of litigation, including pleading, discovery, motions, and trials. In addition to Section 1983 litigation, the attorney may also be assigned a caseload of other regional office matters, including cases in the New York State Courts.

Applicants must have a minimum of four (4) years of litigation experience. Additionally, applicants must be capable of handling all phases of an investigation and litigation, from commencement through trial. Strong writing, analytical, organizational, oral advocacy, and negotiation skills are also required. Trial experience is a must and the ability to manage a large caseload is essential.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that attorneys in the OAG be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

As an employee of the OAG, you will join a team of dedicated individuals who work to serve the people of our State through a wide variety of occupations.
