Reference No. CHA/ACC_NYC_PUGS_SPR_2024

Application Deadline is January 26, 2024*

2024 Spring Semester Paid, Part-Time Placement for Graduate or Undergraduate Students

The Charities Bureau of the Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) has a paid placement available during the 2024 Spring Program for accounting students. The Bureau registers and monitors over 60,000 not-for-profit organizations, and its accountants are responsible for ensuring that these organizations' financial information complies with the Internal Revenue Code in preparing their Internal Revenue Service forms 990 and 990PF. The accountants in the bureau are also responsible for ensuring that the organizations' audited and reviewed financial statements comply with the Financial Accounting Standard Board's Generally Accepted Accounting Principles and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' Generally Accepted Auditing Standards.

The Student Assistant for Accounting will assist the accountants in the Charities Bureau's with the following:

- Reviewing the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) form 990 and form 990PF for compliance with the Internal Revenue Code and IRS instructions;
- Reviewing auditors' work papers for compliance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards;
- Assisting the Bureau's accountants with research projects involving the AICPA's auditing clarity standards;
- Participating in various litigation support projects;
- Creating spreadsheets in Excel to report on information gathered from reviewing financial documents; and
- Other duties/projects as assigned.

Applicants must be majoring in accounting or taxation at an accredited college or university, be proficient in the Microsoft Office Suite, and be highly organized, detailed-oriented, and able to work well independently and as a member of a team.

Spring Program Details

- The format of this placement is remote. Students who are working in a remote placement will telecommute for the duration of their placements. Students in this format must have access to a reliable computer, a secure internet connection, a phone, and a sufficiently quiet and private workspace to telework.
- To be eligible for a paid spring placement, applicants must be able to demonstrate they are full-time students in good academic standing as defined by their schools. Applications from students who started college/university during the 2023-24 academic year will not be considered.
- The graduate or undergraduate student hired for this placement will work part-time for the spring semester (15 hours/week for 12 weeks for a total of 180 paid hours). The selected candidate will be hired as a student assistant and be paid hourly at the graduate student rate, which is $17.04, or the undergraduate student rate, which is $16.73.
- Applications will be received online until January 26, 2024, and paid placement offers will be made on a rolling basis.*
- Students who are hired for the spring program may begin their placements on January 17, 2024, or after.
- U.S. citizenship and New York State residency are not required, but applicants must be eligible to be employed in the U.S.
- Applicants are encouraged to learn more about the OAG prior to submitting their applications by visiting the Divisions and Bureaus and Press Releases sections of the OAG's website.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
