Paid Summer Placement for Undergraduate Students

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's (OAG) Law Enforcement Misconduct Investigative Office (LEMIO) is seeking a bright, hard-working, and motivated undergraduate student with a genuine interest in public service and criminal justice reform for a paid placement during the 2024 Summer Program. The selected student will assist attorneys and legal support staff with LEMIO's ongoing investigations.

Assignments will include, but will not be limited to, the following:

- Completing policy, research, and fact analysis projects;
- Reviewing and organizing case files and other evidence;
- Perform various research, records management, and report general functions;
- Assisting with consumer complaint intake and mediation; and
- Providing research and administrative support.

Applicants must have strong attention to detail, as well as excellent writing, communication, and organizational skills. Proficiency with Word, Excel, Access and similar programs is preferred. Interest in social justice, criminal justice reform, research, litigation, investigations, or other legal practice is also preferred. Fluency in other languages is a plus but not required.

Summer Program Details

- The format of this placement is hybrid or remote. Please review the following for more information about both format options.
 - Students who are working in a hybrid placement may report to their designated workstation two or three (2-3) days per week. On the days students will be working remotely, they will need to have access to a reliable computer, a secure internet connection, a phone, and a sufficiently quiet and private workspace to telework.
 - Students who are working a remote placement will telecommute for the duration of their placements. Students in this format must have access to a reliable computer, a secure internet connection, a phone, and a sufficiently quiet and private workspace to telework. Please be advised, students hired for remote, paid placements must be available to complete their payroll onboarding paperwork in-person at one of the OAG's 15 locations around New York State.
- To be eligible for a paid summer placement, applicants must be able to demonstrate they are full-time students in good academic standing as defined by their schools. Applications from students who will be starting college/university during the fall 2024 semester will not be considered.
- The undergraduate student hired for the program will work full-time (37.5 hours/week) for the 8 weeks of the program.
- The undergraduate student will be hired as a student assistant and paid the hourly rate of $16.73.
- Applications will be received online until March 1, 2023, and paid placement offers will be made on a rolling basis.*
- The program will run from May 20, 2024 – July 12, 2024. Students hired for the program must be available to work during these dates and for the entire eight (8) weeks of the program.

- U.S. citizenship and New York State residency are not required, but applicants must be eligible to be employed in the U.S.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
