Law Enforcement Misconduct Investigative Office — New York City

Assistant Attorney General

Reference No. LEM_NYC_AAG_3646

Application Deadline is February 16, 2024

The Office of the New York State Attorney General is seeking a talented and motivated attorney for its Law Enforcement Misconduct Investigative Office (LEMIO). The Assistant Attorney General (AAG) position provides a unique and exciting opportunity to join a first-of-its-kind statewide oversight body charged with identifying and addressing systemic police misconduct. LEMIO seeks to improve the effectiveness of law enforcement, promote public safety, protect the civil rights and liberties of New Yorkers, as well as enhance transparency and strengthen public trust in the criminal justice system. The position will be located in New York City and reports to the LEMIO Bureau Chief and Deputy Bureau Chief.

The Office was created by the New York State Legislature in June of 2020 in the wake of the killing of George Floyd and its implementing legislation went into effect April 2021. The Legislature's intent was to create a "strong, independent office" which would improve the current police oversight structure "by providing broad jurisdiction, independence, and extra scrutiny where existing systems may be failing."

LEMIO has a broad mandate to investigate "allegations of corruption, fraud, use of excessive force, criminal activity, conflicts of interest or abuse" as well as patterns and practices of police misconduct. LEMIO will be responsible for investigating misconduct, examining departmental policies and procedures, and making recommendations for reform, including disciplinary action.

Qualifications:

- At least three (3) years of post-graduate legal experience is required;
- Experience investigating and/or litigating issues relating to police or governmental misconduct;
- Knowledge of policing practices, procedures, and reforms;
- Strong writing, organizational, interpersonal communication, and problem-solving skills; and
- A demonstrated commitment to public service.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that OAG attorneys be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

As an employee of the OAG, you will join a team of dedicated individuals who work to serve the people of our State through a wide variety of occupations.
