

EMPLOYMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

DETECTIVE INVESTIGATOR: OFFICE OF SPECIAL INVESTIGATION ("OSI") - Syracuse

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Detective Investigator positions in the Office of Special Investigation's Syracuse location. Candidates should be hard working, motivated, and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

In June 2020, the New York State Legislature passed legislation codifying and expanding the Governor's previous Executive Order granting the OAG the jurisdiction to investigate and potentially prosecute incidents when a police officer or peace officer causes the death of a person.

OSI Detectives participate in investigations of the circumstances, facts, and conditions connected with incidents covered by the OSI's legislative mandate, using the highest level of independent judgment and discretion to ensure the integrity, thoroughness, and fairness of the investigations.

Detective Investigators work collaboratively in case specific investigative teams with Assistant Attorneys General, analysts, and crime scene technicians while demonstrating the highest level of professionalism.

Duties performed by Detective Investigators may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Investigate instances that fall within the jurisdictional purview of OSI.
- Assist in the development of investigative plans with the interdisciplinary team, develop leads and informants, conduct physical and technical surveillance, execute search warrants, effect arrests, serve subpoenas, and review relevant reports.
- Conduct witness interviews and prepare comprehensive written reports.
- Work closely with local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies.
- Performance of duties may require unscheduled work on evenings and weekends. Selected candidates may be temporarily reassigned to other areas within the State based on the needs of the Office of the Attorney General. Scheduled "on call" tours (including weekends) will be mandatory.

Minimum qualifications:

- Must have at least ten (10) years of prior law enforcement investigative experience.
- Have current NYS basic police academy certification approved by DCJS or the ability to successfully complete all requirements to obtain NYS basic police academy certification.
- Must possess a valid NYS Driver's License with ability to operate a motor vehicle.
- The NYS Public Officer's Law requires that all police officers be citizens of the United States of America and reside within the State of New York at the time of appointment.
- Must possess strong writing, analytical, and organizational skills.
- Must possess strong interviewing and interrogation skills.
- Experience conducting investigations including, but not limited to, death investigations, officer-involved shootings, and citizen complaints against police officers.
- Demonstrated success in the ability to work effectively as part of a multi-disciplinary investigative team.
- Proficiency with computers, common word processing applications, use of search engines, investigative databases, and internet research.
- Having established law enforcement contacts on the local, state, and federal levels.

Attorney General of the State of New York

Division of Investigations

Preferred qualifications and skills:

- Excellent interpersonal communication skills.
- Experience in any of the following areas:
 - conducting complex, long-term investigations.
 - conducting surveillance operations and in the use of surveillance technologies.
 - obtaining and executing arrest and search warrants.
 - testifying in grand jury and court proceedings.
 - effectively conducting and managing multiple investigations.
- Cultural competence to understand and effectively respond to cultural differences that may impact an investigation.
- A bachelor's degree in criminal justice or related field.
- The ability to read, write, speak and understand a second language in addition to English (e.g., Spanish, Mandarin, Russian, Korean, etc.) preferred.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General. The Hire Rate for this position is $73,153.
