

Division of Economic Justice
Investor Protection Bureau - New York City
Assistant Attorney General
Reference No. IPB_NYC_AAG_3664

Application Deadline is April 26, 2024

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's (OAG) Investor Protection Bureau (IPB), located in New York City, is seeking an experienced attorney to lead and pursue complex investigations and litigation using the Martin Act and other laws. IPB protects the public from fraud and misrepresentation in the offering and sale of securities, commodities, franchises, and other investment products. IPB is seeking an attorney who can build on its storied history and robust authority to protect the interests of investors in today's financial markets, including the growing risks in areas such as virtual currencies; addressing fraud in environmental, social, and governance (ESG) disclosures; the marketing of complex and speculative investment products to a broad range of retail investors; and the need for greater racial equity across the financial system.

A minimum of five (5) years of relevant, post-graduate legal experience is required. Substantial experience in the area of fraud and white-collar investigations, as well as litigation experience in state and federal courts, is also required. Applicants must possess strong analytical, writing, research, teamwork, and organizational skills. Experience with securities fraud and/or financial markets is a plus. Prior work experience as a government enforcement attorney or as a prosecutor is also desirable.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that OAG attorneys be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

As an employee of the OAG, you will join a team of dedicated individuals who work to serve the people of our State through a wide variety of occupations.
