

Detective Specialist: Special Operations Unit - Syracuse

The Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is seeking qualified candidates for a Detective Specialist position located in Syracuse. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Duties:

- Participate with criminal investigators and other law enforcement officers in active criminal investigations and apply advanced investigative techniques to gather evidence and intelligence that facilitate the prosecution of violations of criminal laws.
- Provide extensive expertise in the planning and execution of the electronic surveillance phase of major investigative and enforcement operations.
- Provide investigative support for complex internet investigations.
- Serve on high-risk special operations teams.
- Make covert court-ordered entry onto/into the property of targets of criminal investigations to install equipment to collect evidence.
- Provide training and guidance to other law enforcement officers engaged in electronic surveillance and investigative work, assuring mission requirements are fulfilled.

The qualifications for this position are: At least two years of related field experience in computer network administration and support; ability to install and maintain computer equipment, software and computer peripherals. You may be asked to demonstrate proficiency in computer technologies including, but not limited to, diagnosing network problems, desktop support and software installation.

You should have a working knowledge in the use, instruction, installation, maintenance, troubleshooting and integration of the full range of electronic surveillance devices including, but not limited to, telephone, video, audio, tracking, Radio Frequency (RF) technologies and associated surveillance systems.

You should also have experience conducting criminal investigations and knowledge of the laws governing eavesdropping and search warrants.

Please respond to Reference No. INV_SOU_SYR_6609_081024, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is August 10, 2024.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

- Candidate must have a current NYS basic police school certification or have the ability to successfully complete police academy training.
- Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.
- The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.
- This position is within a team environment that works throughout the State of New York. Individuals must be able to work independently and as a team player, be of high moral character and be able to adapt to changing environments quickly.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General. The Hire Rate for this position is $84,980.

How to Apply:

Applications are being received online. To apply, please click on this link: INV_SOU_SYR_6609_081024. Applicants will be taken to the online application page for this position. Applicants must be prepared to submit a complete application packet consisting of a cover letter (include Reference No. INV_SOU_SYR_6609_081024) and resume. Please note: Failure to submit a complete application packet will delay the consideration of your application. You may address your cover letter to Investigator Jobs.

For questions about an Investigator position with the OAG, the application process or assistance with submitting your application, please email Investigator.jobs@ag.ny.gov or call 518-776-2500.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.