

Detective Investigator: Organized Crime Task Force (OCTF) – Syracuse

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Detective Investigator positions located in Syracuse. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated, and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

The role of the OCTF is to conduct complex, long-term investigations into various types of organized criminal activity. The majority of the Unit's investigations utilize advanced and specialized investigative techniques such as physical surveillance, which include the use of still and video photography, and court authorized eavesdropping of telephones, businesses, vehicles, and computers, as well as search warrants. The nature of the investigations conducted by OCTF includes traditional organized crime - gambling, loan sharking, extortion, and narcotics, among others.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have at least ten (10) years of sworn law enforcement experience and current NYS basic police academy certification approved by DCJS.
- Experience performing narcotics investigations.
- Experience working with multi-jurisdictional task forces.
- Experience being an affiant on search warrants.
- Experience utilizing surveillance equipment.
- Experience testifying in court.
- Established contacts within the law enforcement community serving Syracuse and the surrounding areas.

Preferred qualifications:

- Knowledge of SYTECH.
- Proficiency in Spanish.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General. The Hire Rate for this position is $75,348.
