

Economic Justice Division
Bureau of Internet and Technology – New York City
Assistant Attorney General
Reference No: BIT_NYC_AAG_3730

Application Deadline is December 20, 2024

The Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an attorney with experience in information technology and consumer protection law for its Bureau of Internet and Technology (BIT) in New York City. BIT is responsible for the enforcement of New York’s privacy, data security, and consumer protection laws in the online and tech environment, as well as for enforcement of New York’s data breach notification laws. In recent years, BIT has investigated a wide range of issues affecting technology, including spyware, spam, online privacy, child safety, gambling, and internet fraud. Recent investigations have included broadband internet speeds, data breaches, false online endorsements, and speculative tickets.

The selected candidate will be responsible for case investigation and development, settlement negotiation, and litigating affirmative cases on behalf of OAG, as well as consumer outreach and drafting legislation. Applicants must have a minimum of five (5) years of litigation experience, strong writing skills, an interest in technology and related legal issues, and a commitment to public service. An understanding of and/or experience in technology and related legal issues, privacy, and data security is preferred.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York state and be admitted to practice law in New York state. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that OAG attorneys be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

As an employee of OAG, you will join a team of dedicated individuals who work to serve the people of our state through a wide variety of occupations.
