

Detective Investigator: Organized Crime Task Force (OCTF) – White Plains

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Detective Investigator positions in the White Plains office. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated, and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

The role of the OCTF is to conduct complex, long-term investigations into various types of organized criminal activity. The majority of the Unit's investigations involve multiple jurisdictions and utilize advanced and specialized investigative techniques such as physical surveillance, court authorized eavesdropping of telephones, businesses, vehicles, and computers, execution of search and arrest warrants, and utilization of digital and technical equipment. The nature of the investigations conducted by OCTF includes traditional and non-traditional organized crime. This includes investigations into gambling, loan sharking, extortion, narcotics, gun trafficking, human trafficking, and money laundering, among other criminal activity.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have at least ten (10) years of sworn law enforcement experience and current NYS basic police academy certification approved by DCJS.
- Must have the ability to drive a vehicle and possess a valid NYS driver's license.
- The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.
- Expertise conducting physical surveillance.
- Experience investigating the following types of cases: narcotics, gun trafficking, fraud, white collar crime, and corruption crimes.
- Experience investigating traditional and non-traditional organized crime activities.
- Experience working undercover or conducting undercover investigations.
- Experience testifying in grand juries and/or trials in state and federal jurisdictions.
- Experience as an affiant on search warrants and eavesdropping warrants and knowledgeable of the criteria required to obtain such.
- Demonstrated progressive assumption of responsibility or initiative leading work groups towards organizational goals or objectives (i.e. served as lead investigator on complex cases or was point of contact to other agencies on task forces etc.).
- Experience working directly with law enforcement/government offices on the local, state, and federal levels.

Preferred qualifications:

- Excellent computer skills, include the Microsoft Office suite of tools.
- Fluency in a second language.
- Experience working in a law enforcement task force environment.
- Having established contacts within the law enforcement community serving the local office of the OCTF and the surrounding areas.
- Knowledge of and experience navigating various social media platforms.
