

Social Justice Division
Charities Bureau – New York City
Student Assistant for Accounting
Reference No. CHA/ACC_NYC_PUGS_SUM 2025

Paid Summer Placement for Undergraduate Students | Application Deadline is February 28, 2025*

The Charities Bureau of the Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) has a paid placement available during the 2025 Summer Program for accounting students. The bureau registers and monitors over 60,000 not-for-profit organizations, and its accountants are responsible for ensuring that these organizations' financial information complies with the Internal Revenue Code in preparing their Internal Revenue Service forms 990 and 990PF. The accountants in the bureau are also responsible for ensuring that the organizations' audited and reviewed financial statements comply with the Financial Accounting Standard Board's Generally Accepted Accounting Principles and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' Generally Accepted Auditing Standards.

The Student Assistant for Accounting will assist the accountants in the Charities Bureau with the following:

- Reviewing the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) form 990 and form 990PF for compliance with the Internal Revenue Code and IRS instructions;
- Reviewing auditors' work papers for compliance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards;
- Assisting the bureau's accountants with research projects involving the AICPA's auditing clarity standards;
- Participating in various litigation support projects;
- Creating spreadsheets in Excel to report on information gathered from reviewing financial documents; and
- Other duties/projects as assigned.

Applicants must be majoring in accounting or taxation at an accredited college or university, be proficient in the Microsoft Office Suite, and be highly organized, detailed-oriented, and able to work well independently and as a member of a team.

Summer Program Details
