Investor Protection Bureau – New York City

Assistant Attorneys General

Reference No. IPB_NYC_AAG_3749

Applications Considered on a Rolling Basis

Multiple attorney opportunities are available; applications will be accepted until the positions are filled.*

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's (OAG) Investor Protection Bureau (IPB), located in New York City, is seeking experienced attorneys to lead and pursue complex investigations and litigation using the Martin Act and other laws. The OAG is committed to protecting New Yorkers by robustly enforcing state and federal investor protections and prohibitions on corporate abuse. The selected attorneys will advance economic justice in New York state by directly contributing to IPB's critical and ongoing enforcement work.

IPB protects the public from fraud and misrepresentation in the offering and sale of securities, commodities, franchises, and other investment products. IPB is seeking attorneys who can build on its storied history and robust authority to protect the interests of investors in today's financial markets, including the growing risks in areas such as digital assets; addressing fraud in environmental, social, and governance (ESG) disclosures; the marketing of complex and speculative investment products to a broad range of retail investors; and the need for greater racial equity across the financial system.

A minimum of five (5) years of relevant, post-graduate legal experience is required. Substantial experience in the areas of fraud and white-collar investigation, as well as litigation experience in state and federal courts, is also required. Applicants must possess strong analytical, writing, research, teamwork, and organizational skills. Experience with securities fraud and/or financial markets is a plus. Prior work experience as a government enforcement attorney or as a prosecutor is also desirable.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York state and be admitted to practice law in New York state. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that OAG attorneys be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

The salary range for this position is $81,159 - $173,265 + $3,400 in location pay. To learn more about attorney compensation, please visit the following page:
