

Regional Affairs Division
Rochester Regional Office
Student Mediator
Reference No. ROC_PUGS_SUM_2025

Paid Summer Placement for Undergraduate Students | Application Deadline is February 28, 2025*

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's (OAG) Rochester Regional Office is seeking undergraduate students to serve as student mediators for pay. The office prosecutes businesses and individuals engaged in fraudulent, misleading, deceptive, or illegal trade practices. In addition to litigating, the office mediates thousands of complaints each year from individual consumers. The students will mediate individual complaints filed by consumers against businesses, answer inquiries from the public on a variety of topics, and support investigations into larger patterns of fraud or illegality. Applicants must be available to begin their placement in mid-May and work through at least the end of August.

Mediation is an informal process where we act as a neutral third party and attempt to assist consumers and businesses in resolving disputes on a voluntary basis. A large percentage of these complaints are resolved satisfactorily through this process. The student will be assigned a docket of complaint files covering a broad range of consumer issues including retail sales, mail order transactions, credit transactions, telemarketing, warranty problems, home repair, and automobiles.

The students will learn interviewing techniques and develop analytical skills. While each complaint is reviewed by an employee, the student typically exercises significant discretion and independent judgment. OAG professional staff and attorneys are always available to answer questions. The placement affords the student an unusual degree of responsibility and requires the student to display excellent judgment.

Student mediators also answer phone inquiries from the public. When the call is related to a consumer matter, the student will assist the caller in filing a complaint and explaining our mediation program. We also receive calls on a range of topics that are not appropriate for our mediation program. In those instances, the students will help those callers find the best assistance possible elsewhere. Extensive and ongoing phone training is provided, and students receive support and coaching from permanent staff. Students develop excellent communication skills, including effectively and productively handling conversations with dissatisfied callers.

Applicants must be articulate, analytical, creative, and organized. No specific experience is required.
