

Investigations Division
Major Investigations Unit (MIU)
Sex Offender Management Bureau (SOMB) – Albany
Detective Investigator
Reference No. INV_SOMB_ALB_212_032025

Application Deadline is March 20, 2025

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Detective Investigator positions located in the Major Investigations Unit (Albany), within the Investigations Division. Candidates should be hard-working, self-motivated, and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

SOMB conducts civil litigation necessary to either commit dangerous sex offenders to institutions, or to enable the state to manage those offenders under supervision who are not in custody. In furtherance of that litigation, SOMB is routinely called upon to conduct detailed investigations into the underlying facts of an offender's crimes and into the offender's entire history.

Under the direct supervision of the Detective Supervisor of the Major Investigations Unit, the Detective Investigators work collaboratively in case-specific investigative teams with Assistant Attorneys General, analysts, and forensic auditors to conduct highly complex criminal and civil investigations, using the highest level of professionalism, judgment, and discretion.

Successful candidates will combine traditional investigative experience and skills with strong communication and interpersonal skills and the ability to work effectively in multi-disciplinary teams.

Duties performed by Detective Investigators may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Work collaboratively on case-specific investigative teams with Assistant Attorney Generals, analysts, and forensic auditors.
- Assist in the development of investigative plans with the interdisciplinary team, develop leads and informants, conduct physical and technical surveillance, execute search warrants, appropriately handles, processes and controls evidence, effect arrests, serve subpoenas, and review relevant reports.
- Conduct witness, victim, and suspect interviews and prepare comprehensive written reports.
- Work closely with local, state, federal, and other law enforcement partners.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have at least ten (10) years of prior law enforcement experience, five (5) of which must have been in an investigative capacity.
- Have current NYS basic police academy certification approved by DCJS or the ability to successfully complete all requirements to obtain NYS basic police academy certification.
- Must possess a valid NYS Driver's License with ability to operate a motor vehicle.
- Must possess strong writing, analytical and organizational skills.
- Demonstrated success in complex criminal investigations.
- Expertise in interviewing victims of sexual assault, especially the elderly, children, and adults.
- Extensive experience interviewing perpetrators of sexual assaults.
- Experience at the Detective level with a specialty in Sex offenses.
- Extensive experience testifying as a witness in courts in the sexual abuse cases.
- Established contacts within the law enforcement community in the Albany / Hudson Valley and New York areas.
- Proficiency with computers, common word processing applications, use of search engines, investigative databases, and internet research.

- The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Excellent interviewing and interrogation skills.
- Excellent interpersonal communication and writing skills.
- Experience in the following areas:
 - Conducting complex, long-term investigations.
 - Participating in undercover operations, conducting surveillance operations, and in the use of surveillance technologies.
 - Obtaining and executing arrest and search warrants.
 - Testifying in grand jury and court proceedings.
 - Effectively conducting and managing multiple investigations.
 - Investigating financial crimes.
 - Investigating public corruption.
- Cultural competence to understand and effectively respond to cultural differences for the purpose of involvement in undercover operations and/or otherwise to be inserted into investigations and interactions with targets across cultures.
- Experience working on a task force.
- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university.

The annual salary for this position is $75,348. This position is overtime eligible. Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
