

Criminal Justice Division

Organized Crime Task Force - White Plains

Undergraduate Extern for Investigations

Reference No. OCTF/INV_NYC_EXT_FALL_2025

Fall Externship for Undergraduate Students | Application Deadline is September 12, 2025*

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's (OAG) Organized Crime Task Force (OCTF) in White Plains has externships available for academic credit during the 2025 Fall Program for undergraduate students. OCTF is responsible for investigating and prosecuting multi-county, multi-state, and multi-national organized criminal activities occurring within New York state.

The selected student will be exposed to techniques and procedures used during criminal investigations and expected to obey all applicable laws, regulations, and rules. The student will be supervised by and working with OAG detectives, attorneys, and other professional and legal support staff. This placement is an excellent opportunity for students who are considering law enforcement or criminal justice careers.

Duties:

- Perform various case preparation and other investigative support tasks including inventorying equipment and evidence, completing data entry assignments, and assisting OAG detectives with administrative tasks;
- Conduct open-source, social media, and other web-based searches;
- Review court records and other public documents, audio files, videos, and reports of interviews related to ongoing criminal investigations;
- Attend meetings with detectives and attorneys related to ongoing criminal investigations;
- Assist with preparing reports and PowerPoint presentations;
- Review and transcribe electronic communications; and
- Support other projects and assignments as needed.

Qualifications:

- Applicants must be enrolled in a full-time undergraduate degree program;
- Demonstrate an interest in the law, law enforcement, and criminal justice;
- High attention to detail, organized, and able to effectively manage and prioritize work assignments;
- Ability to analyze and synthesize large amounts of information;
- Familiarity with and proficiency using Microsoft Office, including PowerPoint, Excel, Word, and Outlook;
- Sound judgement with the ability to handle confidential information with sensitivity and discretion; and
- Strong interpersonal, verbal, and written communication skills.

Fall Program Details

- The format of this placement requires availability for in-office work. Therefore, the selected students must be available to report to OAG's office located at 44 South Broadway in White Plains, NY two or three (2-3) days per week, during regular business hours.
- At the time students receive and accept an offer, they must provide written documentation from their schools confirming their acceptance into an externship program or an approved independent study. Additionally, this confirmation must include the following information:
 - The appropriate point of contact for the externship at the student's school;
 - The parameters of the externship, including the employer's responsibilities;
 - The required minimum/maximum work hours to be completed by the student; and
 - The number of credits the student will receive upon completion of the placement.
- Students are encouraged to commit to work part-time (15 hours/week) during regular business hours for at least a semester (10-12 weeks) or the minimum stipulated by their externship or independent study.

- Applications are received online until September 12, 2025, and placement offers are made on a rolling basis.*
- Students who are hired for the fall program may begin their placements on September 3, 2025, or after.
- United States (U.S.) citizenship and New York state residency are not required, but applicants must be eligible to be employed in the U.S.
- Applicants are encouraged to learn more about OAG bureaus and regional offices prior to submitting their applications by reviewing information that is available on the public website.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
