

Investigations Division
Office of Special Investigation (OSI) – Albany
Assistant Chief Investigator
Reference No. INV_OSI_ALB_6937_081925

Application Deadline is August 19, 2025

The Office of the New York State Attorney General is seeking an experienced Assistant Chief to join its Office of Special Investigation (OSI) in Albany. OSI was created in April 2021 by legislation which represents the codification and the expansion of the role previously performed by the Special Investigations and Prosecutions Unit (SIPU), created by Executive Order 147 that became effective on July 8, 2015. The Unit includes experienced homicide prosecutors and detectives throughout the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have at least ten (10) years of law enforcement supervisory experience, preferably holding the police rank of Sergeant (or equivalent) or higher.
- Must also have current NYS basic police academy certification approved by DCJS or the ability to successfully complete all requirements to obtain NYS basic police academy certification.
- Must have extensive experience in the investigation of confidential and sensitive matters.
- Must have advanced expertise in investigating, managing and supervising homicides, police-involved shootings, motor vehicle collisions, deaths in custody and/or cases involving alleged law enforcement misconduct.
- Awareness of pending or proposed legislation related to OCI related work (e.g., use of force, less than lethal alternatives, etc.).
- Experience and skill in making recommendations for changes in policing policy.
- Must possess a valid NYS driver license with ability to operate a motor vehicle.
- The NYS Public Officers Law requires that all police officers be citizens of the United States of America and reside within the State of New York at the time of appointment.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Expert interviewing and interrogation skills.
- Experience effectively conducting and managing multiple investigations.
- Experience interacting, coordinating, and working with other law enforcement agencies.
- Have established law enforcement contacts throughout the State of New York.
- Excellent interpersonal communication and strong writing skills.
- Advanced proficiency with computers, common word processing applications, use of search engines, investigative databases and internet research.
- Commitment to a collaborative team environment and to nurturing an integrated, inclusive, and diverse culture.
- The ability to read, write, speak and understand a second language in addition to English (e.g., Spanish, Mandarin, Russian, Korean, etc.).
- Bachelor's degree from an accredited institution.

The annual salary for this position is $140,334. Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.

How to Apply

Applications must be submitted online. To apply, please click on this link: INV OSI ALB 6937 081925

To ensure consideration, applications must be received by close of business on August 19, 2025.

Applicants must be prepared to submit a complete application consisting of the following:

- Cover Letter - Include the Reference number: INV_OSI_ALB_6937_081925
- Resume
- List of three (3) references - Only submit professional references, supervisory references are preferred.

If you have questions regarding a Detective Investigator position with the OAG, the application process, or need assistance with submitting your application, please email Investigator.Jobs@ag.ny.gov or call 518-776-2500.

For more information about OAG, please visit our website: ag.ny.gov