

Alba settlement details

If you worked for Alba Services Inc. or its related New York City construction and demolition companies (see list of related companies that follows), you may be eligible to receive restitution if either of the following is true:

- » You were injured at work between 2016 and 2024 and reported your injury to Alba.
- » You were sexually harassed at work between 2016 and 2025.

The total amount of the settlement between Alba and the Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is $1.5 million and at least $1.4 million will be distributed to workers.

Atticus Administration LLC (Atticus) is the official settlement administrator.

We expect Atticus will begin notifying qualifying individuals soon. Once you receive notice, you can file a claim at the Atticus website.

- » You will have until January 31, 2026, to file a claim.
- » Payments will be made on a rolling basis by check, Venmo, Zelle, eMastercard, or ACH (electronic funds transfer).

These payments will continue to be distributed through August 21, 2026, when Alba finishes making payments under the settlement.

PROTECTIONS FOR CURRENT EMPLOYEES

The settlement requires Alba to do all of the following:

- » accurately report all workplace injuries
- » stop punishing injured workers who file claims
- » stop interfering with medical treatment or workers' compensation claims
- » establish and enforce strong policies to prevent sexual harassment
- » conduct mandatory trainings for management and employees twice per year about workers' compensation benefits and requirements and sexual harassment in English, Spanish, and Russian
- » be monitored by OAG for three years; OAG may extend monitoring to six years if Alba continues to violate workers' rights
- » file reports to OAG twice per year documenting compliance with workers' compensation and human-rights laws

The following companies are covered by the settlement:

- » Alba Services Inc.
- » Alba Carting & Demolition
- » Alba Environmental
- » Alba Core & Shell
- » Alba Electric Corp.
- » Arc Contracting Inc.
- » Caledonia Carting Services
- » CSC Services Corp.
