Spring Paid, Part-Time Placements for Undergraduate Students | Application Deadline is January 30, 2026*

The Press Office in the Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking a talented and committed undergraduate student for a paid, part-time placement during the 2026 Spring Program.

Duties:

- Compiling daily news briefs;
- Monitoring news updates;
- Maintaining and updating media database;
- Coordinating with statewide news outlets;
- Providing creative input to the press process;
- Editing and proofreading press releases;
- Answering high volume phone calls; and
- Assisting with social media content and monitoring.

Candidates should have strong writing, analytical, and organizational skills. Close attention to detail and the ability to meet tight deadlines is required. An interest in public service and a familiarity with New York state government is a plus.

Spring Program Details

- The format of this placement is hybrid or remote.
 - Hybrid Placements: Students report to their designated workstation two or three (2-3) days per week. On the days students work remotely, they need a reliable computer, a secure internet connection, a phone, and a sufficiently quiet and private workspace to telework.
 - Remote Placements: Students telecommute for the duration of their placements. On the days students work remotely, they need a reliable computer, a secure internet connection, a phone, and a sufficiently quiet and private workspace to telework. Please be advised, students hired for remote, paid placements must be available to complete their payroll onboarding paperwork in-person at OAG's offices in Albany or New York City or at one of the 13 regional office locations.
- At the time students receive and accept a paid placement offer, they must provide written documentation demonstrating they are full-time students in good academic standing as defined by their schools. Applications from students who are starting college/university during the 2025-26 academic year will not be considered.
- The undergraduate student hired for this placement will work part-time for the spring semester (15 hours/week for 12 weeks for a total of 180 paid hours). The undergraduate student will be hired as a student assistant and be paid the hourly rate of $17.75.
- *Applications are accepted online until January 30, 2026, and paid placement offers are made on a rolling basis.
- Students who are hired for the spring program may begin their placements on January 21, 2026, or after.
- United States (U.S.) citizenship and New York state residency are not required, but applicants must be eligible to be employed in the U.S.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
