

Investigations Division

Major Investigations Unit (MIU) – Albany

Detective Supervisor

Reference No. INV_MIU_ALB_6611_021426

Application Deadline is February 14, 2026

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for a Detective Supervisor position located in the Major Investigations Unit (Albany), within the Investigations Division. Candidates should be hard-working, self-motivated, and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Under the direct supervision of the Commanding Officer and the Executive Officer for the Major Investigations Unit, and in their absence, the Detective Supervisor will be responsible for the supervision of investigatory personnel who conduct a variety of criminal investigations. The Detective Supervisor will provide the first level of review on administrative matters such as time and attendance, expense accounts, state vehicle usage and inspection, training, and overtime approval for unit members, as well as evaluating the performance of the detectives on a quarterly and annual basis assigned to the unit and taking appropriate remedies. The Supervisor will also oversee and direct criminal investigations, case management, staff assignments and will confer with the Commanding Officer and Executive Officer on case matters, as well as personnel issues.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have at least ten (10) years of prior law enforcement experience.
- Have current NYS basic police academy certification approved by DCJS or the ability to successfully complete all requirements to obtain NYS basic police academy certification.
- Experience conducting criminal investigations.
- Experience conducting undercover surveillance and operations utilizing electronic recording devices.
- Excellent interview skills.
- Experience working on a task force.
- Established contacts within the law enforcement community in the greater Capital District.
- Previous management or supervisory experience.
- Police1 Leadership Training Course completion.
- Must possess a valid NYS Driver's License with ability to operate a motor vehicle.
- The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university.

The annual salary for this position is $108,478. Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
