Paid Summer Placement for Undergraduate Students | Application Deadline is February 27, 2026*

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's (OAG) Watertown Regional Office is seeking bright, hard-working, and motivated undergraduate students with a genuine interest in public service for a paid placement during the 2026 Summer Program.

The selected students will focus on a specific topic of interest to OAG and will manage all aspects of that project. Project assignments will include, but will not be limited to, the following:

- Completing legal and policy analysis projects on the selected topics;
- Interviewing and networking with a wide range of community members related to the designated topic;
- Organizing and presenting community interviews in a digestible format;
- Performing community outreach and investigating; and
- Researching, writing, and presenting briefing memo and policy paper.

Applicants must have excellent attention to detail, as well as excellent writing, communication, and organizational skills. Proficiency with technology is preferred. Strong interpersonal skills and comfort working in groups will be valuable. An interest in social justice is preferred.

Summer Program Details

- The format of this placement is hybrid or remote. Please review the following for more information about both format options.
 - Hybrid Placements: Students report to their designated workstation two or three (2-3) days per week. On the days students work remotely, they need a reliable computer, a secure internet connection, a phone, and a sufficiently quiet and private workspace to telework.
 - Remote Placements: Students telecommute for the duration of their placements. On the days students work remotely, they need a reliable computer, a secure internet connection, a phone, and a sufficiently quiet and private workspace to telework. Please be advised, students hired for remote, paid placements must be available to complete their payroll onboarding paperwork in-person at OAG's offices in Albany or New York City or at one of the 13 regional office locations.
- At the time students receive and accept a paid placement offer, they must provide written documentation demonstrating they are full-time students in good academic standing as defined by their schools. Applications from students who will be starting college/university during the 2026 fall semester will not be considered.
- The summer program will run for eight weeks from May 18 – July 10, 2026. Students hired for the program must be available to work full-time (37.5 hours/week) during these dates and for the entire eight (8) weeks of the program.
- The selected student will be hired as a student assistant and paid the undergraduate hourly pay rate of $16.39.
- *Applications are accepted online until February 27, 2026, and paid placement offers are made on a rolling basis.
- United States (U.S.) citizenship and New York state residency are not required, but applicants must be eligible to be employed in the U.S.
- Applicants are encouraged to learn more about OAG bureaus and regional offices prior to submitting their applications by reviewing information that is available on the public website.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
