

Criminal Justice Division
Organized Crime Task Force – White Plains
Legal Support Analyst
Reference No. OCTF_WP_LSA_6426

Application Deadline is March 13, 2026

The Office of the New York State Attorney General is seeking a talented candidate for the position of Legal Support Analyst (LSA) in the Organized Crime Task Force (OCTF) in White Plains. The LSA will work closely with a team of Assistant Deputy Attorneys General and Detectives to investigate and prosecute organized crime cases in New York state.

The LSA will be involved in OCTF's cases at all stages and will be an integral member of the investigative team. LSAs serve a critical role in the bureau and perform both investigative and legal support functions, including searching databases, drafting subpoenas, writing reports, and analyzing and synthesizing large volumes of phone and bank records. The LSA will assist in executing wiretaps, analyzing intercepted communications, and identifying targets. The LSA will also assist attorneys and investigators in preparing for grand jury presentations, arrests, and prosecution, including processing documents to be turned over during discovery. Additionally, the LSA will be expected to support OCTF attorneys by performing a variety of administrative duties, including preparing legal documents and correspondence, answering phones, communicating with court personnel, maintaining case files, and organizing and copying documents.

This is a full-time, entry-level position. A bachelor's degree is required for the position. Additionally, the selected individual must have excellent organizational, time management, and multitasking skills. The ability to analyze and synthesize large amounts of information, excellent written and verbal communication skills, attention to detail and accuracy, as well as familiarity with Microsoft Word, Excel, and social media, are also required. The ideal candidate will have experience researching and analyzing documents, possess a strong interest in law enforcement and criminal investigations, and demonstrate an eagerness to contribute to the direction and success of OCTF's cases. Finally, applicants who are available to work in this position for at least two (2) years are preferred.

The annual salary for this position is $62,745 + $4,000 in location pay. As an employee of OAG, you will join a team of dedicated individuals who work to serve the people of our state through a wide variety of occupations. We offer a comprehensive New York state benefits package, including paid leave, health, dental, vision, and retirement benefits, and family-friendly policies. Additionally, OAG offers a robust Workplace Flexibilities Program with multiple options for employees, including telecommuting (up to two days per week) and alternative work schedules.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
