

Investigations Division

Major Investigations – Real Estate Enforcement Unit (REEU) – New York City

Detective Investigator

Reference No. INV_INVS_NYC_1111_062826

Application Deadline is June 28, 2026

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for a Detective Investigator position in the Major Investigations Unit (NYC), within the Investigations Division investigating various types of real estate fraud. Candidates should be hard-working, self-motivated, and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Under the direct supervision of the Detective Supervisor of the Major Investigations Unit, the Detective Investigators work collaboratively in case specific investigative teams with Assistant Attorney Generals, analysts, and forensic auditors to conduct highly complex criminal and civil investigations, using the highest level of professionalism, judgment, and discretion.

Successful candidates will combine traditional investigative experience and skills with strong communication and interpersonal skills and the ability to work effectively.

Duties performed by investigators may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Work collaboratively on real estate fraud investigations with Assistant Attorney Generals, analysts, and forensic auditors.
- Develop investigative plans, develop leads and informants, conduct physical and technical surveillance, execute search warrants, appropriately handle, processes and voucher evidence, effect arrests, serve subpoenas and review relevant documents.
- Conduct victim, witness, and target interviews and prepare comprehensive written reports in a timely fashion.
- Work closely with local, state, federal and other law enforcement agencies.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have at least ten (10) years of prior law enforcement experience.
- Have current NYS basic police academy certification approved by DCJS or the ability to successfully complete all requirements to obtain NYS basic police academy certification.
- Expert interviewing and interrogation skills.
- Extensive experience in the investigation of all types of criminal activity including white-collar crime.
- Experience investigating confidential and sensitive matters, such as those dealing with cooperating witnesses and undercover operations.
- Experience conducting surveillance and executing search warrants.
- Experience testifying as a witness.
- Experience utilizing various computer systems.
- Experience working with other law enforcement agencies.
- Having established regional contacts at the city, state and federal levels.
- Must possess a valid NYS Driver's License with ability to operate a motor vehicle.
- The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

The annual salary for this position is $77,608. Appointments in New York City receive an additional $4,000 location pay. This position is overtime eligible. Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
