

Investigations Division
Special Operations Unit (SOU) – White Plains
Assistant Chief Investigator
Reference No. INV_SOU_WP_9856_111626

Application Deadline is November 16, 2026

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for the position of Assistant Chief Investigator (Executive Officer) for the Special Operations Unit (SOU) within the Investigations Division. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated, and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

The Investigations Division's Special Operations Unit provides investigative technical expertise and support to all Divisions, Bureaus, and Units within the Office of the Attorney General. SOU is a statewide unit with 24/7/365 responsibilities for providing technology-based solutions for active criminal investigations. SOU is responsible for the management of the statewide electronic surveillance network, including electronic eavesdropping, video/audio surveillance, GPS tracking, digital forensics, and other specialized technical investigative capabilities.

Duties:

The Assistant Chief Investigator serves as the Executive Officer of the Special Operations Unit (SOU), reporting directly to the Deputy Chief Investigator/Commanding Officer. The Assistant Chief assists with the overall management, direction, supervision, and operational oversight of SOU personnel, technical capabilities, and resources statewide, and assumes command responsibilities in the absence of the Commanding Officer. The position provides executive-level leadership and oversight of specialized investigative operations, personnel management, administrative functions, policy implementation, and interagency coordination, while ensuring operational effectiveness, accountability, compliance, and adherence to the highest professional and ethical standards.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have at least ten (10) years of law enforcement experience.
- At least five (5) years of supervisory or management-level experience in a similar or comparable technical services law enforcement environment, including experience managing detectives, supervisors, and personnel of various ranks.
- Have a current NYS basic police academy certification or NYS specialized police investigator certification approved by DCJS or the ability to successfully complete all requirements to obtain such certification.
- Demonstrated executive-level leadership and management experience, including directing personnel, managing operational priorities, fostering accountability, and ensuring organizational effectiveness.
- Proven ability to strategically lead, mentor, and develop supervisors, detectives, and investigative personnel, including evaluating performance, supporting professional development, and succession planning.
- Extensive experience planning, directing, and overseeing technical surveillance operations, including electronic surveillance, court-authorized eavesdropping, covert technical operations, and specialized investigative support.
- Demonstrated experience overseeing complex law enforcement operations, including search warrants, arrest warrants, and covert installations.
- Knowledge and understanding of applicable state and federal laws governing electronic surveillance, eavesdropping, wiretapping, and related investigative technologies.
- Experience with organizational policy development, operational compliance, and briefing executive management.
- Demonstrated ability or experience in developing, implementing, or assisting with integrity control programs, internal compliance initiatives, and accountability measures to promote adherence to agency policies, procedures, and professional standards.

- Experience coordinating with local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies and maintaining effective interagency partnerships.
- Exceptional communication, interpersonal, writing, and organizational skills, with demonstrated ability to effectively lead, collaborate, and communicate with personnel at all levels of the organization.
- Demonstrated cultural competency, professionalism, and sound judgment in effectively managing and responding to cultural, interpersonal, and situational factors that may impact investigations, personnel supervision, operational decision-making, and workplace dynamics.
- Demonstrated professionalism, personal integrity, sound judgment, accountability, and commitment to confidentiality and ethical standards.
- Must possess a valid New York State driver's license and have the ability to operate a motor vehicle.
- The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Senior-level law enforcement management experience, including experience overseeing supervisors and managing geographically dispersed investigative personnel, technical resources, and operations.
- Graduate of the FBI National Academy, Southern Police Institute, or a similar police leadership program.
- Bachelor's degree or higher from an accredited college or university.
- Experience and/or certification working in high-voltage environments.
- Experience in the operation, management, and administration of enterprise video surveillance systems (VMS), digital audio/video collection systems, communication collection systems, and eavesdropping/wiretapping systems.
- Knowledge and expertise in cellular tracking for fugitive tracking/apprehension and knowledge of telecommunications networks and underlying technologies, including landline and mobile telephony.
- Experience with enterprise network management, Microsoft-based technologies, LAN/WAN networking, Cisco networking, and storage area networks (SAN).
- Experience and training in Technical Security Countermeasures technologies and operations.
- Experience planning and conducting covert undercover technical operations.
- Experience testifying in Grand Jury and Court proceedings.
- Fluency in a second language.

The annual salary for this position is $146,649. Appointments in White Plains receive an additional $4,150 location pay. Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends and requires 24/7 availability. This position is in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
