State Counsel Division
Real Property Bureau—Albany
Assistant Attorney General
Reference No. RPB_ALB_AAG_3925

Application Deadline is November 20, 2026

The Real Property Bureau in the Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an experienced attorney to join its Albany office as an Assistant Attorney General. The bureau provides legal assistance to New York state agencies in connection with the acquisition and disposition of public land. Under the Eminent Domain Procedure Law, the bureau represents the state in court proceedings involving disputes over the state's title to land acquired for public use, and in actions contesting the amount of money the state is to pay in the condemnation of private property. The bureau also brings affirmative eviction proceedings pursuant to Real Property Article & Proceedings Law ("RPAPL") Article 7 and represents the state in matters involving land disputes under RPAPL Article 15. The bureau additionally defends or prosecutes other property related cases which are venued statewide.

The ideal candidate has at least five (5) years of post-graduate civil litigation experience with knowledge of real property and eviction law. Knowledge of the eminent domain procedure law, quiet title proceedings, and encroachment proceedings are a plus. This position requires some travel throughout the state with an emphasis on handling matters and trials venued in Albany and Downstate courts.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York state and be admitted to practice law in New York state. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that OAG attorneys be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

The salary range for this position is $87,356 - $186,494. To learn more about Assistant Attorney General compensation, please visit the following page:
