Economic Justice Division
Senior Counsel—New York City
Reference No. EJD_NYC_SC_3935

Applications Deadline is December 18, 2026

The Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking an experienced attorney to serve as Senior Counsel for the Economic Justice Division (EJD). The EJD is comprised of five (5) bureaus: Antitrust, Consumer Frauds, Internet and Technology, Taxpayer Protection, and Investor Protection, as well as the AI Safety, Standards, Enforcement, and Transparency Unit. The EJD has taken a leading role nationally in standing up for affordability for consumers; protecting young people online; holding artificial intelligence and other big tech companies responsible for harms to competition, consumers, and the economy; halting illegal gambling operations; and addressing financial fraud in cryptocurrency and other investment products. The EJD is responsible for enforcing New York's RAISE Act to address AI frontier model safety, the SAFE Act to protect young people online, the Martin Act to protect investors, and the FAIR Act to combat consumer financial frauds.

The Senior Counsel will report directly to the Chief Deputy Attorney General (CDAG) for Economic Justice and serve as a chief advisor, assisting the CDAG in leading the division.

Duties:

- Identify areas ripe for creative affirmative enforcement and litigation, including multi-state impact litigation brought by state attorneys general;
- Identify, draft, and advocate for legislative and regulatory improvements to New York law to support OAG priorities;
- Assist the CDAG with the management and oversight of the division's docket and daily operations;
- Liaise regularly with EJD's Bureau Chiefs, managers, and attorneys on active matters and provide legal and strategic support as needed;
- Review, recommend, and implement changes to EJD workflows and tracking mechanisms to ensure a consistency of practice across the division and the effective and efficient disposition of matters;
- Oversee and expand EJD's professional development programming, including providing opportunities for staff training and mentorship; and
- Initiate, organize, and coordinate complex investigations and other special projects.

Qualifications:

- At least ten (10) years of legal experience;
- Excellent legal analysis, legal writing and editing, and oral advocacy skills;
- Strong organizational, interpersonal communication, problem solving, and teamwork skills;
- Comfort with and proficiency using technology to complete legal work, including knowledge of and experience with various computer software programs and case management and electronic discovery platforms;
- Prior government experience is preferred; and
- Prior experience supervising, coaching and/or mentoring attorneys and support staff is also preferred.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York state and be admitted to practice law in New York state. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that OAG attorneys be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

The salary range for this position is $87,356 - $186,494 plus $4,150 in location pay. To learn more about attorney compensation, please visit the following page:
