State Counsel Division
Litigation Bureau – Albany
Assistant Attorney General, Incarcerated Individuals Litigation Section
Reference No. LIT/IILS_ALB_ AAG_3934

Application Deadline is December 18, 2026

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's (OAG) Litigation Bureau in Albany is seeking attorneys to handle state and federal litigation generally commenced by persons either incarcerated or formerly incarcerated in New York state prisons. Generally, the Litigation Bureau represents the state of New York and its agencies and officers in state and federal courts in proceedings relating to civil rights, education, social services, public employment, public health, law enforcement, corrections, state finance, insurance, taxation, and other litigated matters arising out of state operations and legislation.

This position is located within the bureau's Incarcerated Individuals Litigation Section where cases primarily present questions of federal constitutional law, and statutory interpretation. Attorneys in the section handle all phases of litigation from pleading to discovery to motions. With satisfactory performance, attorneys in the section can expect to participate in trials, first as a limited second chair handling minor witnesses, with the possibility of advancing to conducting a trial as first chair. Attorneys in the section also handle certain matters filed in the New York State Supreme Court, including Article 78 Petitions filed by incarcerated individuals, and petitions for the New York State Department of Health to release vital records.

Qualifications:

- Applicants must be admitted to practice law in New York state;
- Excellent lawyering skills including research, writing, and legal analysis are required;
- Strong organizational, interpersonal communication, problem solving, and teamwork skills;
- Comfort with and proficiency using technology to complete legal work, prior knowledge of and experience using various computer software programs and case management and electronic discovery platforms is desirable; and
- Availability for some travel in New York state is required.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York state and be admitted to practice law in New York state. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that OAG attorneys be citizens of the United States. A two (2) year commitment upon being hired is a condition of employment.

The salary range for this position is $87,356 - $186,494. To learn more about attorney compensation, please visit the following page:
