Form 4720 (2015)

The Donald J. Trump Foundation, Inc.

EIN: [REDACTED]

Attachment to Form 4720

On September 9, 2013, The Donald J. Trump Foundation Inc. (the "Foundation") inadvertently made a contribution of $25,000 to a political organization by the name of And Justice For All (the "Political Organization"). See Attachment A (canceled check payable to And Justice For All). The payment was intended to be made from Mr. Trump's personal funds, and was mistakenly made from the Foundation due to confusion between the Political Organization, a Section 527 organization, and a Section 501(c)(3) organization by the same name. The circumstances leading to the mistake are described below.

In August, 2013, Mr. Trump directed his staff to make a $25,000 payment to "And Justice For All," intending this to be the Political Organization. Based on the name, his staff assumed this was a Section 501(c)(3) organization. Staff researched and determined that an organization by that name was listed in IRS Publication 78. See Attachment B (photocopy of page from IRS Publication 78 on which Foundation staff marked the name And Justice For All). Staff also searched the Internet and located the Section 501(c)(3) organization. See Attachment C (September 9, 2013, print out from the And Justice For All website). Accordingly, a determination was made that this payment should be made from the Foundation. The organization that received the check, however, was not the Section 501(c)(3) organization but rather the Political Organization. There was a second mistake when the Foundation's 990-PF was prepared. The Foundation's accountants were provided the name of the grantee and amount of the grant. They then looked up the status of the organization on the IRS master business file using the name "Justice For All" without the "And." This led the accountants to list a different Section 501(c)(3) organization – Justice For All – on the Form 990-PF.

Once Mr. Trump learned of the mistake from the news media, he publicly acknowledged the mistake and promptly took corrective action. This included reimbursing the Foundation $25,000 from his personal funds to correct the transaction. See Attachment D. The Foundation will not provide Mr. Trump with a donor acknowledgment letter for this reimbursement and he will not claim a charitable contribution deduction. Mr. Trump also directed the Foundation to take appropriate corrective action with the IRS, and the Foundation has done so by filing Form 4720. Because this was a mistake, Mr. Trump paid the excise tax under Section 4955 with his own funds. See Attachment E.

The use of Foundation funds to make the payment arose from an error of mistaken identity, as did the listing of the incorrect organization on the Form 990-PF. The Foundation intends to enhance its grantmaking diligence procedures in the future by seeking additional information about proposed grantees rather than relying solely on the grantees' name. This should safeguard against the possibility of confusion in the unusual circumstance when two organizations share the same name. The Foundation will also provide its accounting firm with the name, address and taxpayer identification number of its grantees in the future to ensure correct 990-PF reporting.

As final corrective action, Foundation staff will complete a training program on grantmaking procedures by May 15, 2016, to further safeguard against any future improper expenditures by the Foundation. This will also include training about the use of the up-to-date IRS process for checking the tax status of charitable organizations which replaces Publication 78.
