Division of Criminal Justice – New York City
Forensic Accountant/Auditor
Reference No: DCJ_NYC_FAA_6043

The New York State Office of the Attorney General’s Division of Criminal Justice is seeking a forensic accountant/auditor for an entry level position in the New York City office. The forensic accountant/auditor supports the division by working in partnership with its attorneys, investigators and legal support analysts to investigate actions involving, but not limited to: taxpayer fraud; organized crime; securities fraud; public integrity; internet crimes and environmental criminal acts; and utilizing the NYS False Claims Act, the Executive Law, the Martin Act, and other federal and state laws. Many of the actions involve coordination with other state and federal, civil and prosecutorial anti-fraud agencies, and have resulted in large-scale recoveries on behalf of the state of New York. A forensic accountant/auditor is needed to participate in these complex fraud investigations and, when appropriate, to support prosecution of crimes uncovered by such investigations.

A minimum of a bachelor’s in accounting, finance or economics is required, and the candidate must be eligible to sit for the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) exam. The position qualifies for CPA accreditation purposes. Candidates for the position of forensic accountant/auditor must possess excellent analytical skills, written and verbal communication skills, and organizational and time management skills. The candidate should also be proficient with spreadsheet, database and presentation software. The ability to work independently and collaboratively as a member of the team is essential.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.
