Executive Division
Office of the General Counsel – New York City
Paid, Part-Time Law Student Internship
Reference No. EXEC/OGC_NYC_PLS_FA/SP_2019-20

The Office of the General Counsel (OGC) in the Executive Division of the New York State Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is seeking applications from law students for a part-time, paid internship.

The Executive Division maintains the functions of the OAG and, in addition to the OGC, includes the Senior Leadership Team, Chief Deputy Attorneys General (CDAGs), the Solicitor General, and the directors of Communications, Intergovernmental Affairs, Legislative Affairs, and Research & Analytics. The Executive Division’s responsibilities include policy development, public relations, community outreach, research and analytics, drafting proposed legislation, monitoring legislation that affects the OAG, and the day-to-day administration of the Office.

The OGC intern will assist the OAG Records Access Officer with responding to requests from the public for copies of OAG records. Such requests are subject to the Freedom of Information Law (FOIL), which pertains to the public's right to access government records. Duties may include, but not are limited to communicating with OAG staff who may have responsive records or searching OAG stored archives for records; gathering and evaluating OAG records to ensure responsiveness to the request; and logging all FOIL requests and tracking their status through completion. The position involves handling sensitive information and requires the selected candidate to maintain the highest degree of confidentiality.

This is a paid position for 15 hours per week. The candidate selected for this position must be eligible to be employed in the U.S. and a full-time law student in good academic standing, as defined by their school. The selected candidate will be hired as a legal aide at the rate of $17.39/hour. Candidates must be available to work for at least a semester.
