

Division of Criminal Justice
Medicaid Fraud Control Unit – New York City
Forensic Accountant/Auditor

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's Medicaid Fraud Control Unit \(MFCU\), located in New York City, is seeking a forensic accountant/auditor to participate in complex fraud investigations in the healthcare industry, utilizing the New York State False Claims Act, Social Services Law §145-b and the Executive Law, and, when appropriate, to support prosecution of crimes uncovered by such investigations. Many of our actions involve coordination with other state and federal civil and prosecutorial anti-fraud agencies resulting in large-scale recoveries.

Candidates for the position of forensic accountant/auditor must possess excellent analytical, communication and organizational skills, and a minimum of a four (4) year college degree, either specifically in finance, accounting or economics, or equivalent post-college work experience.

Applicants should be proficient with database and presentation software. Experience with statistical sampling is a plus. A CPA is not required; the position qualifies for CPA accreditation purposes. Designation as a Certified Fraud Examiner is also a plus. Applicants will be considered for both entry-level and experienced assignments.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*
