

Criminal Investigator: Investigations – Syracuse

The Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Investigators, under supervision, conduct detailed investigations of the circumstances, facts and conditions connected with complaints and violations of the law, using the highest level of independent judgment and discretion. These are often highly complex and sensitive criminal matters which cross county lines and involve organized crime.

This position performs investigations in a wide variety of criminal cases in various bureaus throughout the Office of the Attorney General in the Syracuse region. The qualifications for this position include: Experience coordinating and conducting criminal investigations including, but not limited to, violent crime, white collar crime and financial crimes; experience conducting internal investigations and personnel matters within a major municipality police department; expertise and service as an expert court witness in the field of polygraph science; experience coordinating and conducting sensitive video and audio surveillance operations in various regions of the state; Division of Criminal Justice Certified Instructor; experience in interaction and coordination with other law enforcement agencies; and having law enforcement contacts in the Onondaga and surrounding counties area.

Please respond to posting Reference No. INV_INVS_SYR_6564_081216, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is August 12, 2016.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
