

Investigator: Investigations - New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Investigators, under supervision, conduct detailed investigations of the circumstances, facts and conditions connected with complaints and violations of the law, using the highest level of independent judgment and discretion. These are often highly complex and sensitive criminal matters which cross county lines and involve organized crime.

This position is assigned to the Dignitary Protection Detail for the Attorney General.

The qualifications for this position are: Detective, experienced in executive protection; experience as a trained Martial Arts Instructor and Practitioner, trained and experienced in body language to eliminate and/or reduce the risk of threats. Must be capable of conducting location set-ups and advancing of designated sites in preparation for the Attorney General's arrival; experience coordinating all necessary logistics and operations; experience conducting protection for high-level officials as well as national and international dignitaries; and having established contacts and a working relationship with city, state and federal law enforcement officials serving the greater New York City metropolitan area. Must be fluent in Spanish, possessing both written and oral skills.

Please respond to posting number #6604, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is May 18, 2015.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
