

Detective Investigator: Organized Crime Task Force (OCTF) – White Plains

The Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is seeking qualified candidates for Detective Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

The role of the OCTF is to conduct complex, long term investigations into various types of organized criminal activity. The majority of the Unit's investigations utilize advanced and specialized investigative techniques such as physical surveillance, court authorized eavesdropping of telephones, businesses, vehicles, and computers, as well as search warrants, which include the use of still and video photography. The nature of the investigations conducted by OCTF includes traditional organized crime - gambling, loan sharking, extortion, and narcotics, among others.

The qualifications for this position include: Expert interviewing and interrogation skills; extensive experience in the investigation of all types of criminal activity, including white-collar crime; experience investigating confidential and sensitive matters, such as those dealing with public officials, cooperating witnesses and undercover operations; experience conducting surveillance and executing search warrants; fluency in Spanish; experience testifying as a witness; experience utilizing various computer systems; experience working with other law enforcement agencies; having established contacts within the law enforcement community in the New York City area.

Please respond to Reference No. INV_OCTF_WP_6962_042021, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is April 20, 2021.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement experience and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
