

Detective Investigator: Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) – New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Detective Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

MFCU, the centerpiece of New York's efforts to combat Medicaid provider fraud, is looking for experienced investigators to conduct complex investigations into fraud committed by Medicaid providers and others in the healthcare industry who steal from New York State, those involved in the diversion of prescription narcotics, and to investigate and prosecute abuse and neglect of residents in nursing homes, hospitals, and other residential healthcare facilities.

The qualifications for this position are: expertise in interviewing and interrogation skills; experience in case development and enhancement; experience identifying pattern crimes; experience in planning tactical operations; experience with planning and conducting surveillances to monitor criminal activity; experience collecting and processing evidence; experience executing search warrants and arrest warrants; proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel, and Outlook; experience in conducting computer searches via Clear, Accurint, and E-Justice; experience in conducting searches through social media, Facebook, and Twitter; extensive experience in report writing and case management; experience testifying in court; knowledgeable of fraud and corruption investigations; and established contacts at the City, State, and Federal levels of law enforcement in the NYC area.

Please respond to Reference No. INV_MFCU_NYC_7226_050521, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is May 5, 2021.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
