

Detective Investigator: Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) – Pearl River

The Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is seeking qualified candidates for Detective Investigator positions located in the location noted above. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

MFCU, the centerpiece of New York's efforts to combat Medicaid provider fraud, is looking for experienced Detective Investigators to conduct complex investigations into fraud committed by Medicaid providers and others in the healthcare industry who steal from New York State, those involved in the diversion of prescription narcotics, and to investigate and prosecute abuse and neglect of residents in nursing homes, hospitals, and other residential healthcare facilities.

The qualifications for this position are: Expert interview and interrogation skills; extensive experience conducting covert operations including video and audio surveillance and experience in Title III wiretaps; extensive experience in the analysis and auditing of computer data; experience in the reviewing of bank records; experience managing financial fraud investigations; and, established contacts within the law enforcement community serving the Pearl River and greater New York City metropolitan area.

Please respond to Reference No. INV_MFCU_PR_7544_060721, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is June 7, 2021.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.

Applications are being received online. To apply, please click on this link:
