

Detective Investigator: Auto Insurance Fraud Unit - New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Detective Investigator positions located in various locations in the above noted location. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

In 2001, in response to the increase in no-fault insurance fraud, the governor signed Executive Order 109, appointing the Attorney General as the special prosecutor for auto insurance fraud. Since 2002, AIFU has brought felony charges against over 380 defendants, including doctors, lawyers, healthcare providers, steerers, lay people, and hospital employees. AIFU continues to investigate and prosecute no-fault fraud and other types of auto insurance fraud.

The qualifications for this specific position include: Experience conducting criminal investigations; experience investigating financial fraud; advanced interrogation skills; experience in evidence collection and preservation; experience conducting surveillance; experience testifying in court; advanced computer skills; experience with wiretaps; having established law enforcement contacts on various levels; and, knowledge of NYC and surrounding areas.

Please respond to Reference No. INV_AIFU_NYC_9336_042221, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is Thursday, April 22, 2021.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement experience and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must have the ability to drive a vehicle and possess a valid NYS driver's license.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.

Applications are being received online. To apply, please click on this link: INV_AIFU_NYC_9336_042221; applicants will be taken to the online application page for this position.
