

Investigator: Investigations – New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Investigators, under supervision, conduct detailed investigations of the circumstances, facts and conditions connected with complaints and violations of the law, using the highest level of independent judgment and discretion. These are often highly complex and sensitive criminal matters which cross county lines and involve organized crime.

The qualifications for this specific position include: experience conducting criminal investigations; extensive experience conducting undercover surveillance utilizing electronic recording devices; superior interview skills; fluency in Spanish both verbal and written; experience investigating public corruption and identify theft; experience working on a task force; and, established contacts within the law enforcement community of the New York City Metropolitan area.

Please respond to posting number #9422 as outlined below. Deadline for responding is May 19, 2015.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
