

Assistant Chief: Investigations Division – New York City

The Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is seeking qualified candidates for the position of Assistant Chief in the location noted above. Candidates should be hard working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

The Assistant Chief will be responsible for overseeing and coordinating assignments for the Attorney General's Executive Protection Unit. The incumbent will provide review on administrative matters such as scheduling, time sheets, expense accounts, state vehicle usage and overtime approval. In addition, the incumbent will annually evaluate the performance of all investigators assigned to the unit. The Assistant Chief will supervise field assignments and travel with the Attorney General when required.

This position is assigned to the Executive Protection Unit. The qualifications for this position are: Supervision experience within an executive/dignitary protection unit; must have extensive experience in dignitary protection services, both domestic and foreign; trained and certified in Dignitary Protection; experience leading investigations regarding international terrorist threats; experience working on a joint task force with several law enforcement agencies; expert interview and interrogation skills; extensive experience conducting undercover operations; experience investigating organized crime; experience with wire taps and, must have established contacts within the law enforcement community serving the greater New York City metropolitan area.

Please respond to Reference No. INV_INVS_NYC_6827_060321. as outlined below. Deadline for responding is June 3, 2021.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must have the ability to drive a vehicle and possess a valid NYS driver's license.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.

Applications are being received online. To apply, please click on this link:

INV INVS NYC 6827 060321; applicants will be taken to the online application page for this position. Applicants must be prepared to submit a complete application packet consisting of a cover letter (include Reference No. INV_INVS_NYC_6827_060321) and resume. Please note: Failure to submit a complete application will delay the consideration of your application. You may address your cover letter to Investigator Jobs.

For questions about an investigative position with the OAG, the application process or assistance with submitting your application, please email Investigator.jobs@ag.ny.gov or call 518-776-2500.

These positions are in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.