

Nicole White - Rochester

Hi, I'm Kathy Hochul, no I'm not. Im not Kathy Hochul I'm Nicole White.

Kathy Hochul is a marvelous woman; I am also a marvelous woman.

Strong Memorial hospital started some beef with me and named me incorrectly on some paperwork and made it a difficult and grueling process for me to be able to find peace after, I was brought there in handcuffs I was fully evaluated and disrespected by the staff Nurse.

Filed a DHR complaint against the hospital afterwards because I found the inappropriate name calling on the paperwork to cause significant amounts of grief there was no need to go that far.

Also I was being questioned about private things that I didn't feel comfortable answering and no one took accountability it caused a lot of trauma in my life actually and that's just not even the full story ..

The hospital was a disgrace the process they didn't need to hand cuff me and new York should be told so that people are aware that because of what happened, that I have to live with a certain type of grief and they just don't understand it.
