This Settlement Agreement is made and entered into this thirtieth day of June 1997, by and between the State of New York ("New York" or "Plaintiff") by Dennis C. Vacco, Attorney General, and Colgate-Palmolive Company ("Colgate-Palmolive").

WHEREAS, New York will file a Complaint against Colgate-Palmolive for damages and injunctive relief on its own behalf and as parens patriae on behalf of all natural persons residing in New York who during 1995 to 1997, the Complaint will allege, would have redeemed manufacturers' coupons on their purchases of Grocery Products from retailers in Western New York that would have been issued but for an alleged conspiracy; and the Complaint will allege that Colgate-Palmolive participated in an unlawful agreement to eliminate or reduce the number of coupons issued in Western New York in violation of federal and state antitrust laws; and Colgate-Palmolive denies the allegations of the Complaint;

(b) Colgate-Palmolive is making the monetary payment described in this Settlement Agreement solely to settle claims for restitution. The parties agree that such payment is not a fine or similar penalty paid to New York for the violation of any law. Payment hereunder does not constitute, nor shall it be construed as or treated as, payment in lieu of treble damages or as a fine, penalty, punitive recovery or forfeiture.

IV. INJUNCTION

(a) Colgate-Palmolive agrees that, for a period of two (2) years from the date of New York's application for preliminary approval of this Settlement Agreement, Colgate-Palmolive shall not enter directly or indirectly into any contract, combination, conspiracy, agreement or arrangement with any of its manufacturer competitors to eliminate or reduce the number of coupons in Western New York.

(d) Colgate-Palmolive agrees to maintain records from materials generated in its ordinary course of business sufficient to reflect its compliance with injunctive provision IV(b) above, which records it shall make available to the New York State Attorney General on reasonable notice. Colgate-Palmolive shall keep such records until at least three years after the date of New York's application for preliminary approval of this Settlement Agreement. Annually for each of two (2) years, no later than sixty (60) days following the anniversary date of New York's application for preliminary approval, Colgate-Palmolive shall submit a letter, signed by an officer of Colgate-Palmolive, to the New York State Attorney General, in care of the Chief of the Attorney General's Antitrust Bureau at New York, New York, stating that Colgate-Palmolive has complied with injunctive provisions IV(a) and IV(b) above for the prior year ending on the anniversary date.

(e) New York agrees that if at any time within two (2) years after New York's application for preliminary approval of this Settlement Agreement, New York enters into a settlement agreement or obtains an injunction in this action against a manufacturer relating to couponing activities in Western New York that contains less restrictive or demanding injunctive terms than those applicable to Colgate-Palmolive, then the Final Judgment and Consent Decree shall, at the written election of Colgate-Palmolive, automatically be modified to make the terms of the decree applicable to Colgate-Palmolive no more restrictive or demanding for its remaining term than such subsequent settlement or injunction.
