ARTICLE I

INTENT OF TOWN BOARD

Section 1. Statement of legislative intent. The town board of the town of Penfield recognizes that there are state statutory provisions mandating towns to establish rules and standards of ethical conduct for public officers and employees which, if observed, can enhance public confidence in local government. In the light of a tendency today on the part of some people to downgrade our local governments and to discredit our public servants and our free institutions generally, it appears necessary that every effort be made to assure the highest caliber of public administration of this town as part of our state's important system of local government. It is the purpose of this local law to implement this objective through the establishment of standards of conduct, to provide for punishment of violation of such standards and to create a board of ethics to render advisory opinions to the town's officers and employees as provided for herein.

Section 2. The standards, prohibited acts and procedures established herein are in addition to any prohibited acts, conflicts of interest provisions or procedures prescribed by statute of the State of New York and also in addition to common law rules and judicial decisions relating to the conduct of town officers to the extent that the same are more severe in their application than this local law.

ARTICLE II

CODE OF ETHICS

Section 1. Definitions, As used in this local law, the term "town" shall mean any board, commission, district, council or other agency, department or unit of the government of the town of Penfield.

Section 2. Rule with respect to conflicts of interest. Section 3. Standards. a. No town employee shall accept other employment which will impair his independence of judgment in the exercise of his official duties.

b. No town employee shall accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which will require him to disclose confidential information which he has gained by reason of his official position or authority.

c. No town employee shall use or attempt to use his official position to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for himself or others.

d. No town employee shall engage in any transaction as representative or agent of the town with any business entity in which he has a direct or indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with the proper discharge of his official duties.

e. A town employee shall not by his conduct give reasonable basis for the impression that any person can improperly influence him or unduly enjoy his favor in the performance of his official duties, or that he is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or person.

f. Each town employee shall abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which he has reason to believe may be directly involved in decisions to be made by him or which will otherwise create substantial conflict between his duty in the public interest and his private interest.

g. Each town employee shall endeavor to pursue a course of conduct which will not raise suspicion among the public that he is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of his trust.

h. No town employee employed on a full-time basis nor any firm or association of which such employee is a member nor corporation a substantial portion of the stock of which is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by such employee, shall sell goods or services to any person, firm, corporation or association which is licensed or whose rates are fixed by the town in which such employee serves or is employed.

Section 2. The board of ethics established hereunder shall render advisory opinions to town employees on written request and upon request of the town board make recommendations to such town board as to any amendments of this local law. The opinions of the board of ethics shall be advisory and confidential and in no event shall the identity of the town employee be disclosed except to authorized persons and agencies. Such opinions shall be on the advice of counsel employed by the board of ethics, or if none, of the town attorney.
